

QUESTION

Email of Scheduling

You have a meeting scheduled with your mentor next week, but it clashes with another important commitment. Write an email requesting to reschedule the meeting to a different day or time.

ANSWER

Dear Sir/Ma'am,

I hope you are doing well. I'm writing to ask if we could reschedule our meeting planned for next week. Unfortunately, I have another important commitment at the same time, so I may not be able to attend as scheduled.

Could we please move the meeting to another day or time that is convenient for you? I apologize for any inconvenience and appreciate your understanding.

Please let me know what time would work best for you.

Thank you for your time and understanding.

Best regards,

Tanusree
